The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday August 18, to Saturday August 22, 1761.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 20th Day of August, 1761,

By the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council appointed to consider of His Majesty's Coronation.

IT is this Day Ordered by their Lordships, That upon the Day of the Coronation no Fires whatever be made, either in, under, or near any Part of the Scaffolding erected, or to be erected, on Account of the said Coronation, in Westminster Hall, the Abbey, or elsewhere, upon any Pretence whatsoever: And in Case there should be a Necessity for Persons to go under the Scaffolding with Lights, that they be obliged to make use of Lanthorns. And the Lord Great Chamberlain, the Earl Marshal, the Dean and Chapter of Westminster, and the Surveyor General of His Majesty's Works, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. Hen. Fane.

Dusseldorff, Aug. 10. Yesterday the Prince of Soubize made another Detachment from his Army to reinforce Marshal Broglio's: It consists of 14 Battalions, viz. eight Royal Grenadiers, four of Tallaru, one of the Queen, and one of Forest, and in four Squadrons of Thianges's Dragoons.

Brunswick, Aug. 11. The melancholy News arrived here this Morning of the Death of Prince Henry of Brunswick, of the Wound he received the 20th of last Month. He died in the Night, between the 8th and 9th, at Ham, where he had been attended by the best Surgeons, both of the British and French Armies.

The Enemy has attempted to establish a Communication for the Subsistence of their Army, between Gottingen and Hoxter; but the first Convoy, consisting of 250 Waggons was taken the 6th, by a Detachment of Hunters of Col. Freytag's Corps, going towards the Weser. The Meal and Bread was dispersed and given to the Country People; and the Waggons and Horses sent back to their respective Villages. The Desertion is very great in the Enemy's Army, and the Want of Provisions of all Kinds, is assigned as the Reason of it. At Cassel it has been published, by Sound of Trumpet, that no one should speak of the Affair of the 16th past, under very severe Penalties.

Hamburg, Aug. 11 The Advice of General Butterlin's Retreat towards Wartenberg, upon the Confines of Poland, is not confirmed, he remaining still at Namslau; but according to Advices received this Afternoon, his Prussian Majesty continued in the advantageous Post which he had taken at Neustadt, after dislodging General Drawkowitz from it.

The Russians attacked, the 2d Instant, a Prussian Magazine between Weida and the Oder, but were repulsed with considerable Loss.

Cologne, Aug. 11. Last Night the Bridge of Boats that were thrown over the River between this Place and Deutz, was broke up in great Hurry.

Forty Pieces of heavy Cannon were taken out of our Arsenal, and planted on the Redoubts opposite to Deutz; and this Morning the French Commandant has ordered all the Vessels and Boats on the Right to be brought to the Left of the Rhine, to prevent the Allied Troops from passing the River.

Prince Clement, Youngest Son of the King of Poland Elector of Saxony, is arrived here.

[Price Two-Shillings and Six-pence.]

Liege, Aug. 14. The French Troops, that were cantooned in this Bishoprick in the Spring, then demanded of the States the Rations that were necessary for their Subsistance; but the Prince's Privy Council desired they would first consume the Magazines they had here, as they were in Danger of being spoilt, and they promised to replace them whenever it should be required. In consequence of that Engagement, the Prince of Soubize now demands Four Hundred Thousand Rations, which distress us very much at this Time, as the Clergy have refused to continue the extraordinary Taxes, that were to answer the Expence occasioned by this War.

Wesel, Aug. 14. Yesterday the Army under the Prince of Soubize arrived between Dorsten and Halteren: The Head Quarters are at Marle. It was necessary to approach the Rhine to facilitate the Arrival of above 120 large Vessels, that were loaded with Forage and Provisions for the Use of the King's Troops, and which have lain for above a Month, watching a favourable Occasion to proceed to Rees.

Brunswick, Aug. 14. Last Night Col. Schlieffen, Commandant of the First Battalion of the Landgrave's Guards, and M. de Wittorf, First Gentleman of the Bedchamber to the Duke of Brunswick, set out for Luneburg, in order to compliment, on the Part of their respective Masters, her Serene Highness the Princess of Strelitz, on her Passage through that Place.

Hague, Aug. 14. The Armies in Westphalia have continued observing each other till within these few Days, when the Prince of Soubize, who had retired farther down the Roer, repass'd that River at Schwiert, and marched to Dortmund. The Hereditary Prince, upon these Motions, is said to have marched to Unna; and, by that Means, keeps between that French Army, and the Bishoprick of Munster.

We have this Evening received Accounts from the Allied Army of the 11th Instant, dated from Stuckenbroeck, which lies North of Paderborn, at which Time they were in full March. By these Accounts, we are informed, that Lieutenant General de Staniville had occupied his Camp at Kleinenberg, with a flying one at Driburg: That the Corps of Count Luface, Closen, and Chabot, occupy three separate Camps at Merlsen, Pomsen, and Niem. M. de Vaux commands a Corps at Hoxter; and M. de Belzunce in the Solling.

Letters from Paris are full of the Resolutions of the Parliament of Paris against the Jesuits, depriving them of all their Privileges and Prerogatives.

By a Letter of the 17th, from Munster, we learn, that the Hereditary Prince was gone from that Side to join the Grand Army; that General Kielmansegge remained with a Corps at Kamen to observe the Prince of Soubise, who was at Essen, and was expected to march to Wesel; having first sent off a second Detachment to join Marshal Broglio.

Hague, Aug. 18. Since the Eleventh Instant, Prince Ferdinand had marched to Detmold and Bellen, which is upon a Line with Hoxter. General Luckner had passed the Weser with his Corps at Hamelen, where he was to join Col. Freytag, and to endeavour to dislodge the Enemy, from the Post they are fortifying on the right Bank of that River.

The Prince Soubize was on the 13th at Marle, between Dorsten and Halteren. It is said, that he has since crossed the Lippe at Rettinghausen; and that General Kielmansegge, whom the Hereditary

Prince

Prince had left with Part of his Corps, to oppoſe him, had thereupon thought it neceſſary to throw a large Garriſon into Munſter.

Letters from Hamburgh of the 14th Inſtant, ſay, that the Ruſſian Fleet, conſiſting of 32 Sail of Ships, were ſeen the 2d Inſtant off Rugenwald, at about Six German Miles from Colberg; but that, on account of contrary Winds, they had only been able as yet, to debark 500 Land Forces.

Letters from Sileſia of the 6th ſay, that General Laudohn, not having ſucceeded in his Views of joining the Ruſſians, had quitted his former Poſition, and marched towards Lower Sileſia; and that the Ruſſians too had left their Camp at Namſlau, and advanced to Hunsfeldt near Breſlau: Upon which his Pruſſian Majeſty was gone with his Army to Strehlen, where he continued when thoſe Letters came away, and had from thence detached a Corps to cover the City of Breſlau.

Whitehall, Auguſt 22.

The King has been graciouſly pleaſed to reſtore Thomas Fowke, Eſq; to his former Rank and Precedency of Lieutenant-General in His Majeſty's Army, and alſo to conſtitute and appoint the ſaid Thomas Fowke to be a Major-General on the Eſtabliſhment of Ireland, in the Room of Major-General Archibald Douglas, who is employed in Germany.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint John Barrington, Eſq; Major General of His Majeſty's Forces, to be a Major-General on the Eſtabliſhment of Ireland, in the Room of Sir John Cope, Knight of the Bath, deceaſed.

The King has been pleaſed to order a Congé d'Elire to the Archdeacon and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Landaff, to elect a Biſhop of that See, the ſame being void by the Tranſlation of the Right Rev. Father in God Richard late Biſhop thereof, to the See of St. Aſaph. And alſo a Letter recommending to the ſaid Archdeacon and Chapter, John Ewer, Doctor in Divinity, to be elected and choſen to the ſaid Biſhoprick of Landaff.

Admiralty Office, Auguſt 22.

Extract of a Letter from Sir Charles Saunders, Vice-Admiral of the Blue, to Mr. Clevland, dated in Gibraltar Mold, on board His Majeſty's Ship the Neptune, July 20, 1761.

It is with the greateſt Pleaſure that I deſire you will acquaint their Lordſhips, that Captain Proby, in the Thunderer, who was cruiſing off Cadiz with the Modeſte, Thetis, and Favorite Sloop, in order to intercept the Achilles and Bouffon, has fallen in with and taken thoſe Ships, and brought them into this Bay.

On looking into Cadiz on Thurſday Morning, the 14th Inſtant, he miſſed the French Ships, and, at Two in the Afternoon of the 16th, he diſcovered them, Cadiz then bearing N. N. E. ¼ E. diſtant 9 Leagues: About One in the Morning, of the 17th, the Thunderer came up with and began to engage the Achilles, who ſtruck after an Action of about half an Hour, Cadiz then bearing E. ½ S. diſtant 19 Leagues.

The Thetis came up with the Bouffon about Seven the ſame Morning: They engaged alſo about half an Hour, when the Modeſte coming up, and firing ſome Guns, the Bouffon ſtruck.

The Thunderer is pretty much damaged in her Maſts, Yards, Sails, and Rigging, had 17 Men killed in Action, and 113 wounded, 17 of which are ſince dead.

The Thetis had alſo ſuffered in her Maſts, Rigging, &c. but had not one Man killed or wounded.

I cannot yet aſcertain the Loſs of the Enemy; we are ſending their Wounded to the Hoſpitals, of which I will ſend a more particular Account as ſoon as poſſible.

The Second and Third Lieutenants of the Thunderer are among the Wounded, and the former of them is in a very dangerous Way. Captain Proby alſo received a ſlight Wound in his Right-Hand.

Chriſt Hoſpital, London, Auguſt 21, 1761.

Whereas John Weſt, late of London, Scrivener, and Frances his Wife, both deceaſed, did, in their ſeveral Life-times, ſettle on the Governors of the ſaid Hoſpital, divers Eſtates in and about the City of London and elſewhere; and the ſaid Frances Weſt did alſo by her Will give a Sum of Money to the ſaid Governors, to be laid out in the Purchaſe of Lands, &c. The Profits of the Whole of the ſaid Eſtates to be applied for the Payments of Annuities or Penſions of Five Pounds each, to poor Men and Women of the Age of Fifty Years and upwards, during their natural Lives, and directed, that their Relations by Conſanguinity ſhould have Preference. The ſaid Governors do therefore hereby give Notice, that if any Perſon, qualified as aforeſaid, ſhall ſtand in Need, or deſire the Benefit of the ſaid Charity, they may, forty Days from the Date hereof, apply to the ſaid Governors at the Counting-houſe in the ſaid Hoſpital, and make out their Relation to the Donors, or to either of them, otherwiſe they will be excluded the Benefit of the ſaid Charity.

Joſeph Eyre, Clerk.

N. B. A Committee will ſit in the Counting-houſe of the ſaid Hoſpital, on Thurſday the 8th Day of October next, to elect Penſioners in the Room of ſuch as are dead.

And all Persons who have any Demands on the said Estate, are required to send an Account thereof to the said Mr. Winterbottom, in order for Payment. The said Annibal Paulhan, and John Francis Blache, continue to carry on the said Business as Partners in Great Saint Helens aforesaid. And the said George Winsley by himself in Threadneedle Street, over-against the Bank.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many Thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisies, Quinsies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small-Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2s. 6d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Places above-mentioned. Price 6d.

THE Creditors of John Farrell, late of Long Acre in the County of Middlesex, Vintner, late a Prisoner in the Poultry Compter, and discharged out of the same by Virtue of the late Act of Parliament made for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, are desired to meet at the House of Isaac Mead, known by the Sign of the Swan, a Publick House in Long Acre aforesaid, on Monday the 31st Day of August Instant, at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon, to chuse one or more Assignee or Assignees of his Estate and Effects, pursuant to the said Act.

WHereas a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against Charles Price, of Cardiff in the County of Glamorgan, Maltster, Tallow Chandler, and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt, is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major Part of them, on the 1st and 2d Days of September next, and on the 3d Day of October following, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, on each of the said Days, at the House of Matthew Mease, Vintner, known by the Sign of the Nag's Head Tavern in Wine-street in the City of Bristol, and make a full Discovery and Disclosure of his Estate and Effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their Debts, and at the second Sitting to chuse Assignees, and at the last Sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his Examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the Allowance of his Certificate. All Persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his Effects, are not to pay or deliver the same, but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give Notice to Mr. Henry Bengough, Attorney, in Bristol.

WHereas the acting Commissioners in the Commission of Bankrupt awarded against Adam Corner, of Duke Street, in the Parish of St. James Westminster, in the County of Middlesex, Taylor, Dealer and Chapman, have certified to the Rt. Hon. Lord Henley, Baron of Grange, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, that the said Adam Corner hath in all Things conformed himself according to the Directions of the several Acts of Parliament made concerning Bankrupts; This is to give Notice, that by virtue of an Act passed in the Fifth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, his Certificate will be allowed and confirmed as the said Act directs, unless Cause be shewn to the contrary on or before the 12th of September next.
